Winner of Last Year's Brooklyn Handlean to Join Peter Pan in the Stud-Don Creole Shows a Fast Trial for Menda y's Big Race-Whitney Stable in Form.

James R. Keene has decided to retire his four-year-old colt Superman, by Commando-Anomaly, to Castleton Stud in Kentucky. Superman started twice this season. He was badly beaten by Hessian at Jamaica, but came back in the Metropolitan Handicap at Belmont Park supposedly with a fair chance of winning that big event. Superman, however, had the misfortune to be cut down in the Metropolitan. A veterinary examined him and for several days it was thought that he would be able to train again. But within the last week, it is said, com-plications set in, so that Mr. Keene concluded to end the turf career of this splendid son of Commando. Last year Superman surprised the racing world by winning the Brooklyn Handicap over a heavy track.
A great future was predicted for him then, but, contrary to expectations, he did not ac complish much in succeeding races.

As Mr. Keene sent Peter Pan, another great son of Commando, to his breeding establishment last fall after the colt had struck himself a few days following his sensational victory in the Brighton Handicap, is evident that he is anxious to produce a new crop of colts and filles with the blood of his famous dead stallion flowing through their veins.

Speaking of Mr. Keene's great race horses of the past reminds one of the fact that his filly Anonyma, who ran second in the Ladies' Stakes yesterday, is a half sister to the immortal Sysonby, being a daughter of Disguise—Optime. As a two-year-old she did not attract much attention and when Trainer Rowe sent her to the post yesterday it was chiefly in the way of an experiment. It was evident that the sharp speculators who usually follow the fortunes of the Keene stable did not have a high regard for Anony ma's chances for she went up in the prices from 10 to 20. But she ran a clever race, nevertheless, and will bear watching in the

Mr. Keene's Peter Quince, another son of Commando, who graduated from the maiden class in the last event, was supposed to be a great two-year-old last season. He was videly touted, but did not start until the Saratoga meeting, when he was soundly beaten. After that Rowe passed him up. but held to the belief that the colt would develop into a slashing three-year-old. Peter Quince did not have much to beat yesterday, but he showed a fine turn of speed and won so easily that the regulars tabbed him for future reference.

It becomes more evident from day to day that the Whitney stable will cut a big figure in this season's important stakes. With Jack Joyner in charge and Eddie Dugan in the saddle all of the Whitney horses are commanding much attention these days. The two-year-olds Bobbin and Sandpiper have won excellent races, while Royal Tourist, by virtue of his defeat of Roseben the other day, looks ike a high class three-year-old. Mr. Whitnev's Stamina, who won the Ladies Stakes yesterday, did so well that many turf experts predicted that she would prove to be the champion three-year-old filly. She was the leading two-year-old of her sex, and when Colin beat her in a stake event last fall she was not by any means disgraced.

Stamina is by Nasturtium—Endurance by Right. The late W. C. Whitney paid $50,000 to A. L. Aste for Nasturtium, by Watercress, J. W. Schorr, the Memphis breeder, for $30,000, it is said. H. P. Whitney has both of these classy thoroughbreds at his stud. Stamina looked like such a cinch that when the layers opened her at 1 to 2 she was hammered down to 2 to 5. E. Dugan never let her down. the others on their heads in the first half

There were three added starters in the adies, F. A. Forsythe's Jeanne d'Arc, Maurice Kraus's Mombassa and the Chelsea Stable's Laughing Eyes. The last named was the extreme outsider in the betting at 50 to 1, yet landed in third place. Previous winners of this event at Belmont Park were Fl Perverse and Yankee Girl. The Ladies, by he way, was run for the first time at Jerome Park in 1868. It was transferred to Morris Park in 1890.

J. Lee, the colored jockey, against whom, it is said, a conspiracy was framed recently by several white jockeys, went before the stewards after the last race, and lodged a protest of foul against E. Dugan, who rode H. P. Whitney's Yorkville Beau, a golding by Hamburg-Yorkville Belle. Lee had the leg up on Torenia, and at the head of the stretch the latter was almost knocked down ville Beau interfered with several others. bearing out in his run to the wire, so that when Lee made his protest the stewards did not lose much time in ruling out the Whitney gelding. Yorkville Beau, by the way, opened at 4 to 1, second choice, but went up to 8. Peter Quince meanwhile was pushed down from 1 to 2 to 1 to 3. Torenia and Bolando also receiving support that cut them both from 20 to 15. The clockers at Gravesend were particularly enthusiastic over a sensational trial there yesterday morning by Mr. Earle's Don Creole, who covered a mile and a quarter in 2:06 3-5, with Garner in the saddle. Don Creole will start in the Brooklyn Handicap next Monday the clockers seemed to think that he will have a royal chance to win. It will be recalled that after being practically eft at the post in the Metropolitan Handicap Don Creole ran a phenomenal race and fin-ished in third place. Trainer Con Leighton, after that performance, decided to point the son of Plaudit for the big race at Gravesend, with the result that he has succeeded in putting the colt in superb condition. Garner will have the mount.

The books won heavily on the defeat of Royal Captive in the first race. He opened at 6 to 5, but the weight of his support was so great that he was beaten down to 9 to 10. This caused Taboo to go back from 3 to 5, while Bonnie Kelso receded from 6 to 7. The surprise of the race was the performance of Sam Lazarus's Nigger Baby, a gelding by Macy-El Poco, who was quoted at 100 to at one period of the speculation.

Fitz-Herbert, giving away weight in the second race, was regarded as the surest and of a sure thing and was backed from 3 to 5 to 13 to 20. He not only won but also ran the five furlongs, straightaway, in 0:59 4-5, 1 4-5 seconds slower than Colin's track record. This was also the case when Sanctus and Bayonet ran first and second respectively in he steeplechase. Sanctus was backed down to 11 to 5, while Bayonet was reduced from 3 to 13 to 5, with a big place play. But the ayers had a life saver in Economy, who was the antiquated Grandpa was ready he soared

The talent made a grave error in the handicap when Zienap, opening favorite at 7 to 5. was permitted to go up to 16 to 5. The general public took Far West, the top weight, and made him a 2 to 1 favorite, while the insiders went to Mike Clancy's Tommy Waddell, reduring him from 5 to 4.

State Senator Chrystle Sullivan and R Angarola, the well known turfman, had a lose call while waiting for a racetrack special at Long Island City yesterday. A beam fell from the roof of the station and struck Angarola a glancing blow on the head, at the same time grazing Sullivan. Angarols was knocked out, but after a while he insisted on going to the track. He and van arrived there after the third race. in future Ed Peters will train all the flat racers in the Rainey stable while, William Garth will look after the jumpers.

Tournament. As survivors for the year's title in the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association at the Essex County Country Club to-day Miss Georgianna Bishop, titleholder, will play Miss Julia Mix, whom she beat in an extra hole match last year, and Miss Elizabeth Hurry will oppose Mrs. L W. Callan. There is a New Jersey player in each match, while Miss Bishop is a Connecticut girl who has been national champion, and Miss Hurry is a New Yorker. It was delightful yesterday on the picturesque course of New Jersey's oldest yet most modern country club, yet so warm that white frocks were out. Miss Bishop was always in command with Mrs. Tiffapy, having They played the bye holes for the score, as Miss Bishop had gone out in 45; and under normal play, as the in holes are the easiest, she had an opportunity to be under 90. But Miss Bishop had an 3 on the fourteenth and ended with 92, a stroke better than the card, to win the medal in the qualifying round, but not as good as she wished. Miss Bishop's card:

In beating Mrs. W. F. Morgan by 4 up and 3 to play Miss Mix was out in 47, and returning in an excellent 48 she made the best score that a woman has returned for the extended course. Miss Mix's card:

HAIDA MAKES FINE SHOWING. for Max Fleischmann Now

for Commission. The new 104 foot auxiliary schooner wacht Haida, built at Seabury's yard for Max C. Fleischmann of the New York and Atlantic Yacht clubs, had an official trial on the Hudson River on Tuesday. The trial lasted for five hours and the motors worked well. The yacht made nine miles an hour, being driven with a six cylinder, 100 horse-power Speedway motor. Mr. Fleischmann was well pleased with the performance. Those on board the yacht at the trial were Max. C. Fleischmann, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Fleischmann, the Misses Anna and Josephine Freischmann, William Fleischmann, Commodore William Titcomb, Charles L. Seabury, W. J. Parslow, J. G. Purdy, Irving Cox and Edward Stevens, the last two representing the designers.

After the trial the Haida went to Bay Ridge, where she is to bend on sails, and will be ready to go into commission by the end of the week. The Haida is a type of boat that has become very popular. She has fine accommodations for a boat of her size and with her power and her sails can make progress in any kind of weather. yacht made nine miles an hour, being driven Rockaway Team Gains Sweeping Victory at Great Neck.

Great Neck Polo Club grounds vesterday in the second match of the tournament for the new Great Neck challenge cup the opponents were the Rockaway and the New Haven teams, the latter the winners of New Haven teams, the latter the winners of the first match. The Connecticut men had no less than nine goals by handicap. The players and their ratings were;

New Haven—No. 1. W. Keeney, 1: No. 2, J. B. Thomas, Jr., 1: No. 3, L. E. Stoddard, 4: back, W. L. Goodwin, 2. Total, 8. Rockaway—J. A. Rawlins, 3; R. La Montagne, Jr., 6; D. Chauncey, Jr., 7; Paul J. Rainey, 2. Total, 18.

The score was 19 goals earned by the Rock-away team, less 1/4 a goal for a foul, making 1834. New Haven did not add to the handicap of 9, but lost 3/4 by a foul and ½ by a safety. Chauncey and La Monsagne did the bulk of the scoring, but the team work of Rockaway was the marked lea ture. To-day's match is between the Meadow Brook first and second teams.

Sanctus Takes Steeplechase With Ease -Taboe, Fitz Herbert, Zienap and Peter Quinco Also Score at Belmont Park-Four Favorites Are Successful

The horses ran closer to form at Belmont Park yesterday than for some time past. Four favorites, three of them at odds on, were successful. A cool breeze tempered the stifling heat and made the afternoon's outing decidedly comfortable for the 15,000 persons who were in attendance. H. P. Whitney's crack mare Stamina, by Nasturtium, who was coupled with Jersey Lightning at 2 to 5, outclassed her rivals in the Ladies Stakes, for three-year-old fillies, at a mile. She set a fast pace and was in hand all the way to the wire, where she beat James R. Keene's Anonyma, a 20 to 1 shot, by three lengths in 1:40 4-5. The Chelsea Stable's Laughing Eyes, 50 to 1, closed with a rush and secured third money, two and a half lengths back. Jersey Lightning was the runner up for three-quarters of a mile and then quit.

P. J. Rainey's Sanctus, 11 to 5 favorite, was so much the best in the International Steeplechase, at about two miles, that Dupee took him in hand after half the journey had been covered, so that he galloped home with a length and a half to spare in 3:59. T. Hitch-been covered, so that he galloped home with a length and a half to spare in 3:59. T. Hitch-cock Jr.'s Bayonet, 13 to 5, was the contender at all stages, but was tiring near the end, where he took the place from Old Grandpa, 20 to 1, by a length. J. W. Colt's Economy, 13 to 5, had no speed at all.

Taboo, 3 to 1, who made all the running in the first race, for two-year-olds, at four and a half furlongs straightaway, stood a long, fierce drive and beat the Newcastle Stable's Royal Captive, 9 to 10 favorite, by a head in 0:52 2-5. Sam Lazarus's Nigger Baby, a 60 to 1 shot, finished with much power and was third, three parts of a length out of the money.

H. R. Brandt's Fitz Herbert, 13 to 20 favorite, won the second race, for two-year-olds, five furlongs straightaway, in a gallop. He breezed in front all the way and had five lengths over the Newcastle Stable's Preceptor, 13 to 5. John E. Madden's Fayette, coupled with Connaught Ranger at 7, finished strong and was beaten a scant length for the place. The time was 0:59 4-5. McDaniel got Zlenap, 16 to 5, through on the handicap, at a mile, in a drive by three parts of a length in 1:40. Tommy Waddell, 4 to 1, was under a drive to beat Far West, 2 to 1 favorite, a length for the place. Fancy, 7 to 2, led at the last sixteenth pole, but blew up. James R. Keene's Peter Quince, a prohibitive favorite, made a runaway of the last race, for maidens, at seven furlongs, and rolled home six lengths to the good in 1:27. H. P. Whitney's Yorkville Beau, 8 to 1, who ran second, was disqualified for fouling. This moved George G. Hall, 30 to 1, into the place, with Bolando, 15 to 1, third. E. Dugan rode two winners. TO-DAY'S CARD FOR BELMONT. lockey Club Weight for Age and Galety Stakes Features.

The Jockey Club weight for age race, at a mile and a furlong, will be run at Belmont Park to-day, with a probable play on James R. Keene's Celt to beat Jack Atkin, Salvidere and Dorante. For the Galety Stakes, a four and a half furlong dash for two-year-old fillies. Trance, Field Mouse and Melisande should go well. In a handicap at a mile and a sixteenth Master Robert, Juggler and Riffeman may be the factors.

In the first event, at seven furlongs, Big Chief, Earl G. and Bedouin figure well. Two-year-olds will run in the second race, at four and a half furlongs, with Arionette, Harrigan and Uniform having chances. The last race is for platers, at six furlongs, straightaway, with Tim McGrath, Frizette and Bonnie Alan perhaps the best. The entries follow: R. Keene's Celt to beat Jack Atkin, Salvidere itill Hanging On to First Place, However, Thanks to the Washingtons, Who Took Cleveland's Measure—Sex Lose in Bos-ton and the Athletics Check the Detroits.

More to the work of the Washingtons, More to the work of the Washingtons, which is duly appreciated, than to any impressive play of their own, the New York Americans are etill hanging on to first place, even though they did meet with their third straight setback yesterday. The Browns eclipsed them again, but the Clevelands had a game grabbed away from them by the tailenders. The upward flight of the Detroits was checked by the Athletics, who went back to third place, Detroit dropping a notch. The Bostons beat the White Sox again, St. Louis advancing to fifth place and the Sox falling to eixth. The points lost and the Sox falling to sixth. The points lost by the leading teams and the ones gained by the rearenders made the race tighter than ever before. The results:

WRIGHT PIM TENNIS RACKET WHO IS PIM? Dr. Joshua Pim was the Tennis Champion of Great Britain for several years. He visited the United States in 1894 and defeated our American cracks with ease. The racket used by Dr. Pim was given by him to Mr. Wright, and ever since the Pim Racket has been the leading Tennis Racket of this country. More championships have been won with the Pim than any other racket.

> The "Ward & Wright," "Sutton," "Sears" and "Campbell" are all superior rackets, while the balance of our line—"Champion," "Golden Gate," "Columbia," "Country Club," "Park," "Hub" and "Surprise"—are as fine as it is possible to make rackets for the price.

The "Wright & Ditson Championship Lawn Tennis Ball" has once more been selected as the ball to be used in all National Tournaments of the United States Lawn Tennis Association.

CINCINNATI, May 27.—The Brooklyns did their very best to hand the game to the locals to-day in the seventh inning, and their efforts were crowned with abundant success. Therefore the visitors left for home by way of Rochester to-night in the lowest position and at a low ebb of self-satisfaction.

Ganzel opened with a single and took the third on Wilhelm's wild toss of Schlei's sacrifice. A pass to Brain filled the sacks. Hulewitt then cut in with a single that sent Ganzel home, Ewing's long fly doing a like service for Schlei, while Brain and Hulswitt moved up a base each. Huggins also drew a sacrifice fly, sending Brain home, Hulswitt following on Jordan's fumble of Kane's drive. Johnny roosting on second. Maloney then allowed Lobert's single to filter past his shins, Kane scoring and Lobert stopping at third. Mitchell's drive for a base counted Lobert. Ganzel, who started the inning, also made the last out on a fly to Pattee. Six runs, four hits. The score:
